How to Get a Permanent Capital. A "Barbour" correspondent of the Weston Democrat wants an immediate permanent location of the State capital (ignoring the fact that the present location is as permanent as any location car be made,) and proposes to secure it by popular vote. He would have the Legislature next winter pass an act providing for an election, at which the people would vote for such places as they choose for the capital. If any place received a majority of the votes cast, that place would be chosen. If not, this appearing upon proclamation of the Governor, he is to order a new election at which only the two places having received the highest votes at the former election would be eli- Children Cry_for Pitcher's Car gible; and at this second election one or

The only way to secure a permanent location is to make one that will satisfy a decided majority of the people of the State. Then there will be no danger that the Legislature will disturb it.

THE WEATHER AND CITY HEALTH. The sudden coming of warm weather, after an unusually cold spring, ought to remind citizens, as well as the city authorities, to "set their houses in order" for the summer heat. It is certain that the cleanliness of a city has a very large influence on its sanitary condition under all circumstances, and it is also certain that a considerable part of the duty of maintaining cleanliness in and around premises does not properly fall within the scope of the authorities in the first instance, but should be attended to by individual citizens. There is always plenty of work of this kind for owners and occupants of real estate to attend to, and it is now high time to be prepared for the summer.

THOMPSON HANNA, Esq, formerly resident of Steubenville, died at Middletown, O., on Saturday, the 17th inst., aged 78 years. Mr. HANNA was a resident of Steubenville, from about 1837 to 1860. He was at one time proprietor of the Clinton Paper Mills, and was among the most energetic business men of Steubenville for a long series of years.

A Washington correspondent writes: Several weeks since Ben. Butler bought a large tract of land just outside the nerthern limits of the city. The tract consisted of three hundred acres, the price being about one thousand dollars per acre. Land in that vicinity being in uo great demand, it was generally considered that Butler had made a bad investment. It now transpires that the Commission appointed by Congress to select a site for the new Presidential mansion have determined to recommend the purchase of this identical tract.

Fishing in Braxton -- A Waltonian

Letter from N. B. Squires, of Sutton, in Wes We are now enjoying the fish season a We are now enjoying the fish season at Sutton. The shoals seem to be well filled with the finny tribe. Elk is certainly a magnificent river for fish, on account of their great variety, size and flavor—the water being so pure that the fish are healthy, and so clear that they can be killed with girs, spears or tilles. can be killed with gigs, spears or tilles at from two to ten leet below the surface three doors east of former quarters, Quiney street, between Main and Market, (it being the corner room next the alley,) where the propietors will be happy to see and serve their friends and patrons.

The New B. & O. Railroad Schedule of this fish at this senson of the year

The New B. & O. Railroad Schedule and the Mails.

The new time table of the B. & O. Railroad may be advantageous to the Company, but in one particular it is not so to the mail service. There is now no way mail east from this city until near eleven o'clock, A. M., and no through mail till evening. This is not a convenient arrangement for the people of this city, nor for those on the first one hundred miles of the line east of this city. The people at Grafton, for example, do not get their morning papers till evening, whereas under the former arrangement they got them by the middle of the torenoon. People on the Parkersburg Branch cannot get Wheeling papers until the day after they are published. This matter would be remedied if the Cumberland accommodation were started from this city at six or seven in the morning instead of eleven as now. Then the whole run would be made by daylight, and this train would be a better accommodation, both for travel and mail distribution, than now when nearly half the route is run after night. As we under they also provided the provided and the former arrangement they got also make the line each of the continuous training and the state of the control of the horse and jack pike that would have agrights in this matter. The contract with the Company ought to require that the mails shall be carried so as to afford the public reasonable accommodation; and we presume if the matter were represented properly by the Department to the Rail-road authorities, the present arrangement.

The Post Office Department has some horse and jack pike that would have agregated one hundred pounds. And from all quarters the girls and boys are carrying home excellent fish, and yet the good but from this until the dark moon in the month of June, the time for spearing and sigging will be at its zenith.
